

YOU'RE INVITED

REALTOR[®] SAFETY FIRST

REALTOR SAFETY... WE ALL HEAR ABOUT THE IMPORTANCE BUT DO WE PAY ATTENTION?

Most of the time Realtors don't work behind a desk in an office. Realtors are usually interacting with the public and meeting with potential clients (some they know, some they don't). The course covers safety practices when showing homes and meeting with clients. It also covers working remotely and safe guarding sensitive information you gather about the people you work with.

SAFETY FIRST! ESSENTIAL TIPS FOR REAL ESTATE AGENTS

Shelly Mannebach,AVP

Florida Business Development, Investors Title

Shelly Mannebach has worked in the real estate industry for more than 25 years and currently manages business development activities in the state of Florida. Prior to joining Investors Title, Ms. Mannebach served as sales manager for a national title insurance company and was responsible for market revenue growth in Central and North Florida. Prior to that role, she served as senior business consultant for the same company, promoting business development in Orlando and surrounding markets and providing CRM and social media training for the Florida sales team. Before relocating to Florida, Ms. Mannebach began her career in Wisconsin in real estate and relocation services. She has held several leadership roles in the Orlando Regional Realtors Association and the Women's Council of Realtors, is a frequent speaker on time management, strategic business planning, and various title-related topics, and earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in communication from the University of Wisconsin Madison.
