Corey Shipwash

Mentor for Sellstate C.A.P.

If you are struggling and your career is not where you were hoping it would be, don't blame yourself or the industry.

You are simply lacking proper training and support!

If you are looking to kick start your career, there is no better place to start than the most innovative real estate brokerage in the country.

The Sellstate Career Acceleration Program is designed to get new and existing agents up to speed and established in real estate in just a few weeks.

This intense proprietary program is fantastic for all agents who need the proper training and guidance to excel.

In just eight short weeks, you'll become an industry expert that will be:

- Networking and prospecting, using Sellstate's proven systems and models
- Showing properties and working with home buyers
- Listing properties and working with home sellers
- Negotiating contracts
- Building an ongoing business that will produce immediate and long term result.

Sellstate is looking to mentor a select group of new motivated Realtors who want to succeed in the real estate business!
